Book Review Writing Competition – Certificate Distribution

Under the “Vachansankalp Maharashtra” initiative, a Book Review Writing Competition was organized in the college. In this competition, students presented in-depth and well-structured reviews of the books selected by them. Based on the quality of writing and content, students who demonstrated excellence were selected and awarded Winner Certificates as a form of encouragement.

The winners of the competition, in order, were as follows:

- Hitesh Malviya
- Kashish Singh
- Nisha Mishra
- Khushi Mishra

All the above-mentioned winners were awarded certificates at the hands of Dr. Frances Vaidya, Principal. In addition, Participation Certificates were distributed to all other students who took part in the competition.

This activity helped inculcate a habit of reading among students and contributed to the enhancement of their writing skills, expression, and self-confidence.

Report

“Vachansankalp Maharashtra” Initiative

Group Reading, Book Exhibition & Book Review Writing Competition – Report

Introduction

Under the Maharashtra Government’s “Vachansankalp Maharashtra” initiative, various activities were organized in our B.Ed. College with the objective of inculcating a reading culture in society, enhancing students’ knowledge, and developing educational and social awareness. As part of this initiative, Group Reading, Book Exhibition, and Book Review Writing Competition were successfully conducted.

Objectives of the Programme

1. To develop an interest in reading among students and teachers
2. To introduce educational, social, and inspirational literature
3. To enhance thinking ability, self-expression, and writing skills
4. To promote the concept of “Vachansankalp Maharashtra”

Nature of the Programme

1) Group Reading

In the Group Reading activity, students were divided into groups. Each group selected books related to social issues, education, national integration, and the development of Maharashtra. After the reading sessions, group discussions were conducted. This activity helped to develop cooperation, critical thinking, and self-confidence among students.

2) Book Exhibition

A Book Exhibition was organized in the college library. The exhibition included:

- Educational books
- Biographies
- Social and inspirational books
- Books related to the history and culture of Maharashtra

Students and teachers visited the exhibition with great enthusiasm.

3) Book Review Writing Competition

In the Book Review Writing Competition, students presented their thoughts in written form on a book of their choice. Emphasis was given to clearly expressing the book's content, message, author's style, and the student's personal opinion. Students who wrote excellent book reviews were awarded Certificates as a form of encouragement.

Participation

All students, teachers, and library staff of the B.Ed. College actively participated in the programme. The activities were conducted in a disciplined and well-organized manner.

Importance of the Programme

The programme helped students develop a habit of reading, improved their writing skills, and effectively fulfilled the objectives of the "Vachansankalp Maharashtra" initiative.

Conclusion

The Group Reading, Book Exhibition, and Book Review Writing Competition organized under "Vachansankalp Maharashtra" proved to be highly successful. Conducting such activities regularly will certainly contribute to the overall development of students.
