Report on Action Research Orientation Conducted by Dr. Frances Vaidya

Dr. Frances Vaidya, Principal of Rahul College of Education, conducted an insightful Action Research Orientation cum Workshop for B.Ed students on Saturday, 30th March 2024. The orientation aimed to familiarize students with the principles and methodologies of action research in educational contexts.

Dr. Vaidya commenced the session by providing an overview of action research and its significance in enhancing teaching and learning practices. She elucidated on the iterative nature of action research, emphasizing the importance of reflective practice and collaboration.

Throughout the orientation, Dr. Vaidya engaged students in interactive discussions, encouraging them to brainstorm potential research topics and methodologies relevant to their educational contexts and also provided guidance on formulating research questions, collecting data, and analyzing findings.

The objectives were to:

1. Introduce students to the principles and methodologies of action research in educational contexts.
2. Equip students with the skills needed to conduct action research effectively.

The outcome of the workshop was:

1. Enhanced understanding among students about the importance of action research in educational settings.
2. Improved proficiency in research skills, including topic selection, question formulation, and data analysis.

The session concluded with Dr. Vaidya inspiring students to embark on their action research journey with enthusiasm and diligence. The students ended up with a workshop by selecting the topics with an objective. Overall, the orientation proved to be a valuable platform for students to acquire essential knowledge and skills in conducting action research effectively.
