NO.	Areas of Discussion	DETAILS
1	Inputs from Principal	<ul style="list-style-type: none">The inaugural IQAC meeting for the academic year 2021-22 was convened in adherence to all COVID-19 safety measures. Despite the ongoing prevalence of online learning for students, the meeting took place in person. The Principal commenced the session by extending a warm welcome to all participants, acknowledging their commendable resilience and adaptability amidst the continuing pandemic.The previous minutes of the meeting held on 5th June 2021 were read by Mr Yigal Banker and was seconded by all.Dr B.S. Panigrahi, former Principal has resigned on 30th June 2021 due to his personal reasons and new I/C Principal appointed Mrs. Sanjana Mishra would continue the IQAC meetings henceforth.The Principal began by acknowledging the challenges posed by the pandemic, particularly in relation to the disrupted timelines for the academic year. He emphasized the importance of adaptability in curriculum planning to ensure students receive a comprehensive education.
2	Inputs from the IQAC coordinator and student achievement	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Mr. Yigal Banker, the IQAC Coordinator, presented a comprehensive overview of the various events and co-curricular activities conducted virtually. These included a series of engaging webinars, workshops, and virtual competitions, which provided students with opportunities for holistic development and creative expression. Furthermore, he also presented the list of certificate and diploma courses that are to be offered. After a few recommendations, the list was approved.The meeting also highlighted the successful execution of practice teaching sessions, conducted virtually in collaboration with partner schools. Faculty members were commended for their innovative approaches in guiding

		students through these sessions, ensuring they received practical experience despite the challenges of the online format. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• A significant achievement was the creation of e-content tailored for early years, such as nursery rhymes and interactive learning materials. This initiative was recognized as a valuable contribution to the field of early childhood education, offering accessible resources for both teachers and young learners.• The IQAC Coordinator also provided a detailed account of various Indian Days celebrated virtually during the academic year. These events included:<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Teacher's Day (September 5th): A tribute to Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, celebrated with online activities and special messages from faculty members.2. Gandhi Jayanti (October 2nd): Observing the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, students and faculty engaged in online discussions and activities focused on his life and teachings.3. Children's Day (November 14th): A virtual celebration dedicated to future leaders, with interactive sessions and creative activities for students.
