Report on Human Rights Day Celebration

Date: 11th December 2024

Objectives:

1. To educate students on the importance of human rights and their impact on society.
2. To provide a platform for students to express their views and creativity on human rights issues.
3. To encourage active participation in discussions and activities that promote awareness and advocacy for human rights.
4. To inspire attendees to uphold and advocate for human rights in their daily lives.

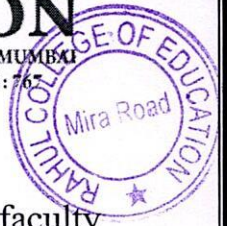

Highlights of the Event:

1. Human Rights Session by Ms. Sneha Manuel: The celebration began with an enlightening session conducted by Ms. Sneha Manuel, a renowned counselor. Her session was both informative and inspiring, providing attendees with a deeper understanding of human rights issues and their relevance to daily life.
2. Students' PPT Presentation: Students showcased their creativity and knowledge through PowerPoint presentations on various human rights topics.
3. Paper Reading Session: A paper reading session was organized where students presented their written works on diverse human rights themes.
4. Digital Quiz: To make the event interactive and engaging, a digital quiz on human rights was conducted. Students actively participated, showcasing their knowledge and quick thinking.
5. Creative Poster Display: The event concluded with a vibrant display of creative posters crafted by students. These posters, which focused on raising awareness about human rights, were visually appealing and conveyed powerful messages.

The Human Rights Day Celebration- Analysis of Student Feedback AY 2024-25

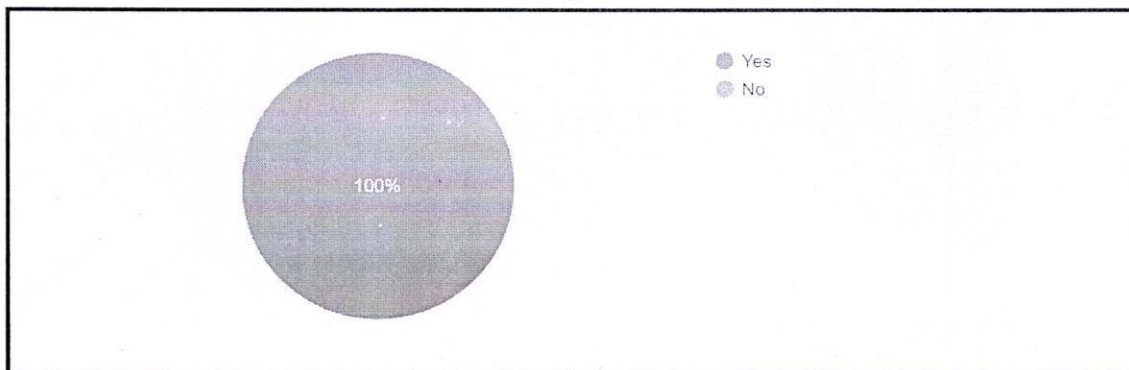

1. How would you rate your overall experience of the Human Rights Day celebration?

Analysis:

The majority of students enjoyed the event, reflecting satisfaction with its execution and impact. The moderate ratings suggest that while the celebration resonated with most, a small proportion of participants may have found room for improvement in certain aspects. Gathering more specific feedback from this group could help identify areas for further enhancement.

2. Did you find the content and activities of the celebration relevant to the theme of Human Rights Day?

(N.C.E.E. Reg. No. WRC/S-6/89/2006 Dtd. 27/09/2006 CODE NO. APW03437/123403) AFFILIATED TO UNIVERSITY OF MUMBAI
AFF/RECOG.I/1249 OF 2007 Dtd. 28 Feb. 2007 | Recognized Under Section 2(f) of the UGC Act 1956 | COLLEGE CODE : 767

Analysis:

The unanimous positive feedback highlights the event's success in aligning its activities with the theme. This indicates that the organizers effectively conveyed the principles and importance of human rights through carefully chosen content. Future iterations could expand on this by including interactive sessions or case studies to deepen understanding and engagement.

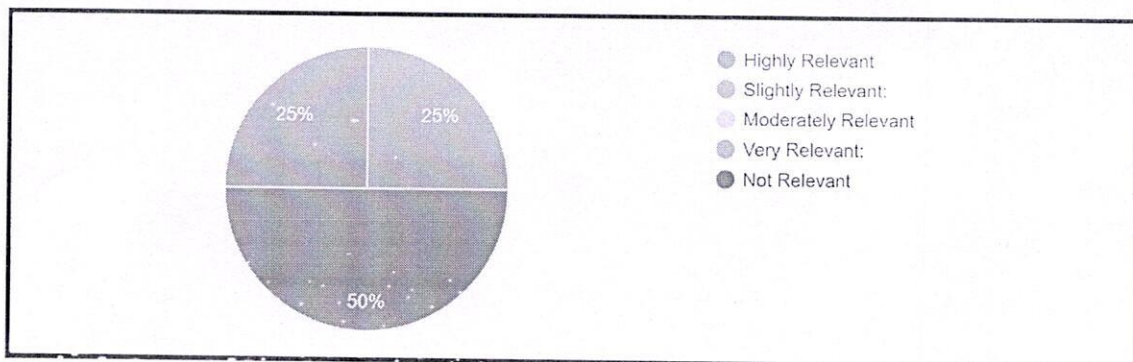

3. How well-organized and smoothly executed was the Human Rights Day celebration?

Analysis:

The event was generally well-organized, with most participants expressing satisfaction with its execution. The "Average" rating points to isolated areas where organizational aspects might be refined. Ensuring smoother transitions between activities, better time management, or enhancing the logistics of the event could help elevate its overall execution.

4. How relevant do you think this activity was to your college experience and personal development?

AFF. RECOG. I/1249 OF 2007 Dtd. 28 Feb. 2007 | Recognized Under Section 2(f) of the UGC Act 1956 | COLLEGE REG. NO. 2767

Analysis:

The feedback indicates that the event made a meaningful contribution to the participants' understanding of human rights in the context of their academic and personal growth. However, the "Slightly Relevant" responses suggest that some attendees may not have fully connected the event's theme to their personal development. Incorporating more relatable or practical applications, such as workshops or community engagement opportunities, could address this gap.

5. Any other suggestions for improvement of the experience.

Analysis:

The feedback reflects overall satisfaction with the event. The suggestion to encourage volunteering presents an opportunity for organizers to incorporate action-oriented initiatives, such as partnerships with local human rights organizations or awareness campaigns, to extend the impact of the celebration beyond the event itself.

Overall Observations

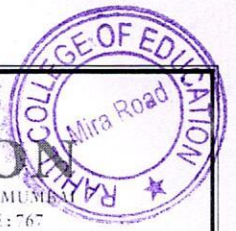

The Human Rights Day celebration was well-received, with participants appreciating its relevance, organization, and alignment with the theme. The event effectively contributed to raising awareness about human rights while providing a platform for meaningful engagement.

To further enhance the impact of future celebrations, the following recommendations are suggested:

1. Strengthen Organizational Excellence: Focus on refining logistics, transitions, and overall time management to achieve a consistently high level of execution.
2. Deepen Engagement: Introduce workshops, panel discussions, or interactive sessions to make the content even more impactful.
3. Promote Practical Applications: Encourage actionable takeaways, such as volunteering opportunities, advocacy initiatives, or student-led campaigns, to inspire participants to actively contribute to human rights causes.

By building on its strengths and addressing the minor areas for improvement, the Human Rights Day celebration can continue to be an impactful and enriching event for students.
