Report

On August 23, 2024, a Teacher Orientation Session was held at 10:00 AM in the Conference Room of Rahul College of Education, to allocate faculty portfolios and discuss essential guidelines for Semester 1 of the academic year 2024-25. The session commenced with a welcome address by the Principal, emphasizing the importance of collaboration and innovative teaching strategies to enhance student engagement.

Key syllabus updates were presented, highlighting minor modifications aligned with current educational trends, and faculty were encouraged to integrate these effectively into their lesson plans. The session also featured an engaging discussion on pedagogical strategies, emphasizing student-centered learning, the use of technology, and formative assessments. Opportunities for interdisciplinary collaboration were explored, with suggestions for conducting integrated projects to foster holistic learning. An open forum allowed faculty to share queries and suggestions, addressing topics such as time management and resource availability, with constructive feedback provided by the Principal and senior faculty.

The session concluded with closing remarks from the Principal, summarizing discussions and outlining action points for the semester. Outcomes of the session included clear portfolio allocations, enhanced understanding of syllabus updates, and strengthened faculty collaboration. The orientation set a positive tone for the academic year 2024-25, equipping faculty members with the tools and motivation to deliver high-quality education.
