DLLE 1st Term Training Session

Date: 7th December 2024

Time: 10:30 AM

Venue: Classroom 406, Rahul College of Education

Speaker: Dr. Manisha Gawde, Field coordinator from the University of Mumbai

Introduction:

On 7th December 2024, a training session on the Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension (DLLE) was held at Rahul College of Education. The session aimed to equip students and faculty with essential knowledge about DLLE initiatives and how they contribute to community development and lifelong learning.

Session Overview:

The session commenced promptly at 10:30 AM in Classroom 604. Dr. Manisha Gawde, a field coordinator from the University of Mumbai, served as the distinguished speaker for the event. Her in-depth presentation provided valuable insights into the goals and activities of the DLLE, particularly its role in fostering community engagement and empowering students through various extension programs.

Dr. Gawde discussed key aspects of the DLLE program, including:

- Objectives of DLLE: The focus on promoting lifelong learning, community involvement, and skill development.
- Opportunities for Students: How participating in DLLE projects can enhance students' personal and professional growth.
- University Initiatives: The range of extension programs supported by the University of Mumbai to encourage students to contribute to society.
- Benefits of DLLE Participation: The personal growth, leadership, and community service skills gained through DLLE projects.

Interactive Session:

After the presentation, Dr. Gawde engaged the participants in an interactive Q&A session, allowing attendees to clarify their doubts and ask questions related to the DLLE activities and opportunities. The session fostered an atmosphere of active learning and dialogue, enhancing the understanding of the program's scope.

Conclusion:

The DLLE training session concluded on a positive note with a vote of thanks to Dr. Gawde for her informative and engaging presentation. The participants expressed their appreciation for the valuable information shared during the session. It was an enlightening experience that provided attendees with the knowledge needed to better understand the impact and opportunities offered by DLLE at the University of Mumbai.

Attendance:

The session was attended by faculty members and students of Rahul College of Education, all of whom actively participated in the discussions and interactions.

Outcome:

The training program successfully raised awareness about the DLLE programs and inspired participants to explore opportunities for engagement in community development through lifelong learning initiatives.
