Report on Promote Entrepreneurship Skills for women empowerment

Date : 15/02/2025

The inauguration ceremony was graced by Dr. Frances Vaidya, Principal of Rahul College of Education, as the chief guest. She emphasized the importance of financial independence for women and commended the collaborative effort in creating this platform. The center aims to provide skill-based certification courses, along with funding assistance, to help women become self-sufficient entrepreneurs in the future.

Students of Rahul College of Education actively participated in the event, extending their support and encouragement to the women learners. They interacted with the trainees, appreciating their enthusiasm and dedication to acquiring new skills. The event witnessed inspiring stories from women who aspired to establish their own businesses with the skills learned at Akshaya Dhaga.

This initiative reflects the institution's commitment to women's empowerment and lifelong learning. The collaborative effort between IQAC, the Women Development Cell, and Akshaya Shakti is a step toward fostering economic independence and skill development among women. The event concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all stakeholders for making this initiative a reality.

Learning Objectives:

1. To equip women with practical skills in stitching, fashion designing, and entrepreneurship for financial independence.
2. To foster confidence and self-reliance among women through skill-based certification courses and funding assistance.

Outcomes:

1. Women participants gained hands-on experience in stitching and fashion designing, enhancing their potential to start their own businesses.
2. The collaborative platform inspired women to pursue entrepreneurship, contributing to their economic empowerment and self-sufficiency.
