Date of Visit: 15th November 2025

Organized by: Rahul College of Education in collaboration with Akshayashakti Foundation

During the visit, student-teachers conducted engaging and innovative teaching-learning sessions designed to make concepts enjoyable and easy to understand. Activities such as storytelling, interactive games, and visual aids were used to enhance student participation. These creative methods helped in simplifying topics and creating a joyful learning environment for the schoolchildren.

The visit concluded with positive feedback from the school staff, who appreciated the efforts, enthusiasm, and professionalism displayed by the student-teachers. The experience proved highly beneficial, offering student-teachers practical exposure and reinforcing the value of community-oriented service in education. Overall, the Community Visit and Service Activity was well-organized, impactful, and educational, fulfilling its objective of bridging academic learning with real-world community engagement.
