Talent Hunt Batch 2025-27

The Talent Hunt for Semester I students of the 2025-27 batch was successfully conducted on 29th November 2025. The event aimed to provide a vibrant platform for student-teachers to showcase their unique abilities and foster creativity, confidence, and cultural engagement within the institution.

The program began with a warm welcome to highlight the importance of such events in fostering holistic development among future educators. Students were encouraged to participate wholeheartedly and express their skills across various forms of performing and non-performing arts.

A wide range of performances were witnessed during the Talent Hunt. Students exhibited talents such as singing, stand up comedy, dancing, poetry recitation, storytelling, cooking, mehndi and drawing & painting. Each participant brought originality and enthusiasm, making the event lively and engaging.

The faculty members greatly appreciated the confidence, discipline, and creative expression demonstrated by the participants. Many performances highlighted themes of culture, motivation, education, and social values—reflecting the spirit and academic environment of the college.

The event successfully fulfilled its purpose of identifying emerging talents and encouraging students to step beyond academics to embrace their artistic strengths. It also helped build peer bonding, teamwork, and a positive learning environment. The Talent Hunt concluded with encouraging remarks from Principal Dr. Frances Vaidya, who motivated the students to continue nurturing their abilities and contribute to the cultural development of the college.

Overall, the Talent Hunt (Batch 2025-27) was a memorable and enriching experience, celebrating creativity, diversity, and the vibrant spirit of Rahul College of Education.
